Effect of Termination: All outstanding obligations shall be deemed to have been paid on the date of termination. Such payments shall be made no later than thirty days after the date of termination.

As evidenced Section _____ of the Code of Alabama _____, the supplier agrees to the following: "Signifying this contract, the contracting parties affirm, for the duration of the agreement that they will not violate federal regulations or state or local laws, hereinafter referred to as unauthorized activities within the State of Alabama. To the extent a contract is found to be in violation of this provision shall be deemed a breach of the agreement and shall be responsible for all damages resulting therefrom. The liability of the Employer if a violation is evidenced prior to a contract award to a Offeror who proposes to employ within the State of Alabama.

Section _____ of the Code of Alabama _____ Article _____ provides that the proposal submitted and
